Belief Boat Troubles. CHICAGO, October 30 .- Dr. Frank M Riley, who went from here with the lower Mississippi to the yellow lever district, will to-morrow publish a card, in which he corrects the false impression which has been given regarding his work on that expedition He says he knows that these statements re ported as coming from Lieutenant Hall, of St Louis, and containing strictures on him, were not founded on fact. His connection with the relief-boat appears to have been entirely creditable to himself and valuable to the managers of the expedition.

Silver Bids. WASHINGTON, October 30.—Subscriptions to the four per cent. loan to day, five hun-dred and twenty-three thousand dollars The secretary of the treasury to-day opened bids for supplying four hundred thousand ounces fine silver, recently given, and in-viting proposals every week. Offers will not be made public, no matter whether the bids are accepted or not. The amount purchased was less than four hundred thousand ounces, and the price paid ranged from one-quarter to one-half cent below the London rate, but | is claimed that the government has an abundant supply for the present demand. REUNION Of the Army of the Tennessee, at Indianapolis, Yesterday-Oration on the American Soldier.

Indianapolis, October 30.—At eleven o'clock this morning the members of the society of the Army of the Tennessee, preceded by music, left their hotels for the Metropoli-tan theater, which had been profusely decorated with flags, evergreens and floral pieces with the names of the prominent officers and battles of this army suspended about the hall. While the audience were being seated the band played a medley of patriotic airs, after which General Sherman called the meeting to order, saying that the proceedings of to-day would be entirely of a business haracter, to which however the presence of the public was cordially welcome. The ap-pointment of committees and the reading of letters was then finished. Among the many letters received and read was one from General Grant, in which he notifies General Sher-man that he has given up his trip around the

The Metropolitan theater was crowded to night with the members and friends of the Army of the Tennessee, The reveille was sounded at eight o'clock, the familiar call peing received with hearty tokens of recognition. After prayer, Hon. John Craven, the mayor of the city, welcomed the society to the city. General Sherman, after thanking the mayor for his welcome, introduced the orator of the evening, Colonel Wm. H. Vilas, of Madison, Wisconsin. His theme was the American soldiers, to whose character, as deloped in the war for independence and the lete rebellion, he paid an eloquent tribute in a lengthy and carefully-prepared effort. Following this came short speeches by Govrnor Williams, Generals Gresham, Harrison, Pope, Belknap, Macauley, Wilson and others. olonel Church sang several of the old camp ongs, the society joining in the chorus. At half-past ten the adjournment was an-ced, the audience dispersing in the best possible humor. The Loss of the Steamer Georgia. San Francisco, October 30 .- The Board f [United States steamship inspectors to-day egan the examination of witnesses regarding the loss of the steamer Georgia. The first, second and third engineers were examned, but their testimony will not be made public until the arrival of Captain Howard. Several passengers testified as to the dis-cipline of the ship being good, and that they d not seen the captain under the influence of liquor, though some of them had heard talk to that effect. The surgeon of the ship estified that he saw Captain Howard after the wreck, when he saw evidence to the effect that the work of saving life and property was conducted in a proper manner. The Epidemie at an End in New Or-NEW ORLHANS, October 30 .- The reorder of deaths receives numbers of letters daily from all parts of the country, making inquiry as to persons alleged to have died during the epidemic. The past two days: leaths from other causes, have exceeded i number those recorded as having been caused y fever. It is therefore probable that the board of health at its regular meeting to-morrow, will declare the epidemic at an end. The Howard officials are busy paying off nurses and issuing orders for transportation for those from Mobile who could not return home for a few days on account of the quarantine against them. An Atrocious Mund c. FORT EDWARD, New York Octobe. 30. MORMON

Bestiality Exposed-Some of the Evi dence Adduced in the Trial of Miles, one of the Notorious Bigimi-ts-The Unfortunate

Story of their Wrongs and the Method of Inveigling them into the Toils of the Latter Day Saints.

SALT LAKE, October 30.—In the Miles ex-amination this morning, John Taylor, presi-dent of the Mormon church, appeared as a witness, avowed himself a polygamist, and that he had children and grand-children by polygamous marriages. He (Miles) came to him for advice. He swore as follows: Miles knew Miss Owens in England. When young he went to sea as a sailor. In Australia he met a Mormon missionary, became a mem-ber of the church and went to St. George, tah. Previous to this he had written Miss Owens offering marriage, and claims that be had received no reply. He understood that she had accepted him, but he had not received her letter. While at St. George he had made marriage engagements with two young women, sisters. Miles and two young women from St. George came to Salt Lake and met Miss Owens from England. Miles asked his advice, which, as given, was: that if the three marriages were per formed they must be in the order of the ages of the young women; that Miss Owens was not the the eldest; that Owens felt aggrieved with this arrangement, but that it was insisted upon as a rule of the church. Other tesimony shows that the elder Miss Spencer and Miss Owens were introduced and acknowledged afterward as the wives of Miles, but that the younger Spencer sister backed out of her engagements. Miss Riley was examined and said she was present at the reception at the house of Angius Cannon or Thursday evening, and that the defendant introduced to her Emily Spencer as his wife. The fact of the plural marriage was generally understood by the company. This witness, it is said, has been ordered from her former home by her brother, for giving evidence in the case, and has taken refuge with a Gentile family. Miss Owens, the sec-ond wife, was examined, and confirmed John Taylor's evidence as to instructions regarding order as to marriage. The first and second wives had a difficulty that evening during the wedding assemblage, and Miss Owens slapped the face of the first wife, and when he mutual husband interfered, she threat ened to slap his face also, but was prevented by bystanders. She then left the house, but was forcibly brought back by the defendant London, October 30: A sprained ankle compelled Vaughn to withdraw from the tedestrian contest. Heartfelt Thanks. EDITORS APPEAL -It is not often I solicit a favor of the papers, but I cannot close my space in the columns of your valuable paper to express my thanks to the Howard association for kindness shown, and to Colonel Galloway, of the Peabody hotel, who, with his corps of help, has, under the greatest difficulties, cared for the creature comforts of the nurses, myself included May heaven prosper and reward those, who in the hour of danger and death, have bravely and heroically stood to their posts, and Memphis can show her full quota of such. A Call on Captain J. C. Maccabe. EDITORS APPEAL-The people of Shelb ounty will be called on next Tuesday to seect at the ballot-box senators and members of the lower bouse to represent their interests in the legislature. Tried and true men, familiar with the wants of our citizens and capable of devising ways and means to provide for those wants, should be elected. In this connection I would suggest the name J. C. Maccabe, Esq., a member of the bar of Memphis, and during the late epidemic commissary of the Citizens' relief committee, as a most suitable man to represent our com munity in the State senate. Everybody seems to regard Maccabe as the man to be elected as one of our State senators, and his learning as a lawyer, as well as his vim, energy and honesty as a man, should cer-tainly qualify him for the place. I trust he will ignore party nominations and come out as an independent candidate for the State senate from old Shelby.

The Future of Our City. EDITORS APPEAL-As to the future of our ity, the suggestion of the APPEAL, indorsed by the board of health, as to the necessity of removing the Nicolson pavement and providing sewerage for the city, will meet the hearty approval of everyone who has the good of the city at heart, but the trouble is this will nvolve the expenditure of money, and as you have remarked, and as every tax-payer has elt, the city is bankrupt and ground into ust by its cormorant creditors, who resort to the Federal courts as a means of coercing the payment of their demands. Unless this heavy hand of oppression is taken off of us, we are powerless and at the mercy of epidem-ics. More than twelve months ago Judge Ellet and myself, on behalf of a committee appointed by the chamber of commerce, remmended a repeal of the charter "or muni apal suicide," as I expressed it, as the sures not the only certain remedy. This was earnestly opposed by the APPEAL, and I be lieve, by the whole city press. But we are now compelled to look the matter squarely n the face. The city is "in extremis," and nless speedily relieved, ruin is inevitable Perhaps the total repeal of the taxing power of the city might answer the purpose, but if skeleton is left the Federal covrts will galvanize it into life. J. W. CLAPP. Let Charity Begin at Home. When the perfumed breath of the sum mer goddess scattered her smiles and sparkles of sunlight, ladened with the poisone reath of yellow-fever on our poor doome Memphis, no one responded to the call of listressed humanity with truer heroism than Mrs. M. E. Raymer, who with benevolent impulses and acts, kind words, looks of sympathy, and an outstretched hand to reieve the suffering, she watched with sleepless and untiring efforts through the entire enidemic. At the bedside of the dying, by onsoling words and prayers, many a cloud has been litted from the troubled and distressed, their drooping spirits revived, their hearts made to throb with new hopes, and their souls imbued with fresh courage to withstand the terrible future. One possess ing such noble characteristics gleams forth from the cluster of virtues as diamond among pearls. The outside world knows nothing of what such as she have had to contend with and sacrifice, but how little do some appre tate such sacribces. For example, this kind and noble-hearted lady, who is fully capaci tated to fill any office in her sphere, applied for a situation in one of the wealthiest dry goods firms in the city, the proprietor wrote her that he had engaged, in New York, ladies to fill all vacancies in his store. Is that just? Our saddened hearts respond with feelings of the deepest gratitude to the sympathies and generosity extended our suffering community from the north, east and west; but charity, that virtue which graces the human character in the simplicity and diversity of its means to elevate, ennoble and

With the chills and fever, the victim of malari may still recover by using the celebrated specific Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only break up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their ecurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine not only because it does the business far mor thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect wholesystem. Testimony is concurrent, positive and ample showing the decisive nature of its effects, and hat it is no mere palliative. Physicians conced that it is no more parasite. Physicians consider its excellence, and there is a constant influx of communications from persons in every class of society avouching its merits, and bearing witness to its superiority over other remedies for malarial disease. It is especially popular throughout the west, wherever fever and ague preval's, as it does in many of the fairest and most fertile portions of that vast region.
